Implementation of a document governance in the energy sector

Needs

— Organize efficiently the management, use and control of project documents between Elia, the authorities, design offices, engineers, contractors and subcontractors

Solutions

— Development of a document governance framework
— Definition of rules and agreements through several document control operating procedures

Benefits

Enhanced effectiveness, quality of communication and collaboration among all parties involved

Significant drop in the number of change requests

Paperless environment